Employers Given More Time to Issue Notices Concerning Health Insurance Exchanges – March 1, 2013 Deadline Delayed to Late Summer or Fall

The Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act ("Healthcare Reform") generally requires employers to issue written notices to employees concerning the health insurance exchange in their state (the "Exchange"). The law requires these notices to be issued by March 1, 2013, but the U.S. Departments of Labor, Health and Human Services, and Treasury (the "Departments"), have advised that this compliance deadline is being delayed.
