Tariff on Imports From India Will Increase to 50% on August 27

Client Alert

8.7.2025

Yesterday, August 6, 2025, the President issued an Executive Order imposing an additional 25% tariff on India effective August 27, 2025, based on a national emergency relating to India's imports of oil from the Russian Federation under the International Economic Emergency Powers Act (IEEPA). This tariff will be in addition to the 25% IEEPA reciprocal tariff on India that will take effect today, bringing the total tariff on most Indian imports to 50%.

The Executive Order also indicates that the President may impose an additional 25% tariff on other countries that import Russian oil.

Butzel's Tariffs Roundup page has been updated to reflect this new development.

The Butzel International Trade, Tariffs and Customs Specialty Team is available to assist in dealing with tariffs and related issues.
