Banking & Finance Law

Butzel has the experience and resources to provide a wide range of services to banking and financial institutions and related businesses. Our attorneys have represented many large banking and financial institutions in matters as diverse as protecting a regional financial institution from a potential hostile takeover to litigation related to defaults of commercial loans, lender liability claims and foreclosures. Our Financial Services team members have represented banks and other financial institutions in numerous matters with federal banking agencies. Our financial services attorneys offer extensive knowledge of the complex laws and regulations affecting financial institutions.
