Bankruptcy & Restructuring

Butzel's bankruptcy and restructuring practice is among the most respected in the area. Members of the group are recognized as leaders in the field. The bankruptcy and restructuring practice strives to provide a proactive, business-oriented approach to finding innovative solutions to complicated problems. Our representations have included virtually every aspect of in-court and out-of-court restructurings, and have involved matters all over the country. Butzel attorneys have helped Chapter 11 debtors, secured and unsecured creditors, lenders, official and unofficial creditors and equity holder committees, receivers and sellers and buyers of assets through the bankruptcy process. Because of our vast experience representing such a broad variety of stakeholders, our attorneys understand the central strategic and tactical issues, opportunities and risks that may be involved in a bankruptcy or restructuring matter.

Butzel attorneys emphasize creative and realistic approaches that are specifically structured to achieve each client's goals. Butzel's broad scope of practice assists the bankruptcy and restructuring practice because the members of the group may utilize our capable support staff, as well as attorneys in other practice areas, such as tax, complex commercial litigation, labor and employment, immigration, SEC enforcement, real estate, and intellectual property, to name a few. By working together with the right team, our clients are able to achieve their restructuring goals efficiently and cost-effectively while enjoying the responsive and personal service upon which Butzel prides itself.
