Immigration

Butzel's Immigration Practice Department is a dedicated team that provides comprehensive immigration counsel to individuals, families, and businesses based across the US and around the world. We offer strategic support on a wide range of matters, including nonimmigrant and immigrant visas, US permanent residence, citizenship, global mobility, and employer compliance and worksite enforcement.

Our clients benefit from the depth of our immigration law experience and the resources of a full-service firm. We work closely with our Corporate, Tax, and Labor & Employment practices to deliver coordinated, effective solutions—particularly where immigration intersects with broader business concerns.

Known for our responsiveness, creativity, and strong relationships within the immigration community, we stay current on legal developments to provide timely, cost-effective guidance. We continuously refine our processes and leverage technology to enhance service delivery and value.

Clients can trust us with their most critical immigration matters, knowing they are supported by a team that is consistently ranked among the top immigration practices in Michigan, earning rankings at regional and national levels since 2011. Several of our attorneys have earned individual honors from respected legal publications, reflecting their standing among the top legal professionals in the field.
