Leasing

Butzel leasing attorneys assist clients with their leasing matters across virtually all asset classes including, office, retail, industrial, health care and warehousing. Whether complex or simple, our attorneys handle leasing matters with equal efficiency. Our leasing attorneys are experienced in representing landlords, tenants, lenders, brokers and property or asset managers in all phases of leasing, from letters of intent, to transaction structure, to lease negotiation, to build-out and occupancy. As these relationships progress Butzel leasing attorneys are involved in assignments, licenses, subleases, expansions, extensions, renewals and terminations. When lease disputes arise, the depth of our experience positions us to represent any of the diverse interests involved.
