Litigation and Dispute Resolution

The Litigation and Dispute Resolution Practice Department represents clients in a range of complex issues and areas of litigation. Our experience includes the handling of appeals, bankruptcy and restructuring matters, business entity disputes including non-compete and trade secret matters, commercial litigation, product liability matters, securities litigation, professional liability matters, real estate litigation, technology and electronic discovery issues, and white collar criminal defense and investigations. This vast experience makes Butzel a destination for clients when challenging litigation matters arise. We have extensive experience in every form of dispute resolution, and our practical understanding of the proceedings and our clients' businesses enables us to resolve disputes quickly and efficiently.

Our litigation and arbitration practices have grown throughout the years. Butzel has a distinguished history of successfully handling arbitration and litigation matters. We have participated in landmark cases beginning in the early twentieth century, where the Michigan Supreme Court acknowledged a President's ability to assert wartime powers over utilities, through the present, where the United States Supreme Court ruled on the constitutionality of affirmative action policies at one of the country's top universities. As a large firm with deep resources across numerous practice areas, to name just one of the many Butzel advantages our clients have come to depend on, this team collaborates in dispute resolution matters with our colleagues that comprise our highly experienced Mediation and Arbitration Specialty Team. We find our clients appreciate the vast experience available in the multiple areas of litigation and dispute resolution our attorneys specialize in being all under one roof—whether in one of our Michigan offices or our locations across the country.

Members of our Litigation and Dispute Resolution Practice Department include American College of Trial Lawyers Fellows, and many have been ranked as top-band litigation attorneys by Chambers USA and named in the Best Lawyers in America®. This
