Title Insurance

Butzel attorneys have extensive experience representing several major national title insurance companies, their agents and their insureds in both transactional and litigation matters, including joint venture transactions, RESPA compliance, coverage disputes, lien priorities, fraud and forgery claims, equitable subrogation, quiet title actions, closing protection letter disputes, title and closing agent disputes, tax lien disputes, disputes with governmental agencies, and premium over-charge disputes. Butzel understands the need for effective and efficient legal representation in the competitive title insurance industry and works along-side its clients to deliver quality and results in a cost-effective manner.
