Amy L. Glenn focuses her practice on Business Law and Estate Planning, drawing on decades of experience to guide clients through estate and trust planning, probate and trust administration, business succession, and fiduciary tax matters. She also advises closely held businesses on a wide range of commercial transactions and legal needs, offering practical, personalized counsel.

For the entirety of her career, Amy Glenn has remained dedicated to helping individuals, families, and business owners navigate complex legal matters with clarity and confidence. Ms. Glenn works closely with clients to develop personalized strategies that protect their legacies, minimize tax burdens, and ensure smooth transitions across generations.

Whether guiding a family through the intricacies of administering a trust, assisting a business owner with a long-term succession plan, or streamlining the probate process during a difficult time, Ms. Glenn brings a thoughtful, solutions-oriented approach to every engagement. She provides practical legal counsel tailored to the unique needs of privately held companies and their owners.

With a focus on building long-term relationships, Ms. Glenn is committed to delivering clear guidance, responsive service, and peace of mind to clients at every stage of life and business. Her experience includes providing estate and succession planning services to some of the wealthiest individuals in Michigan, creating charitable trusts, and providing complex estate planning services to several senior level executives in the automotive industry.
