

DEIRDRE BURKE

SENIOR ATTORNEY

St. Joseph
269 906 2336
burked@butzel.com

Deirdre Burke focuses her practice in the areas of Business, Corporate and Finance, Family Law and Personal Services, Litigation and Dispute Resolution, Media Law, and Real Estate Law. She has been helping clients to navigate business and finance matters for more than two decades and is admitted to practice in courts throughout Michigan, Pennsylvania, and California.

A skilled litigator with experience representing clients in a variety of matters, Deirdre has obtained successful resolution of legal issues including breach of contract, employment, and non-compete issues, lease violations, mortgage foreclosures, and other disputes in a wide range of sectors. She has deep experience drafting corporate legal documents such as bylaws, articles of incorporation, operating agreements, leases, lease amendments, money transfer disbursement agreements, and non-disclosure agreements.

Prior to joining Butzel, Deirdre worked at a large firm in Pennsylvania where she was a member of Transactional and Litigation Teams. She concentrated her practice on the defense of individuals and entities in the financial sector.

During her career, Deirdre has represented abused and neglected children, advocating on their behalf in dependency matters, including termination of parental rights. Strongly committed to helping others, she has continued her dedication to aiding those in need through working as a volunteer to assist indigent individuals seeking legal advice.
