Jonathan T. Walton, Jr. helps clients navigate complex commercial disputes and sophisticated business transactions with practical, results-driven legal strategies. Businesses, lenders, contractors, and property owners have turned to Jonathan for more than four decades for guidance in high-value litigation and financial matters where clarity, efficiency, and strong advocacy are critical.

Clients across a wide spectrum of industries seek Jonathan's counsel on issues including breach of contract, securities and banking disputes, construction-related claims, and real estate litigation. His work includes resolving large loan defaults, enforcing creditor rights, handling lien and title insurance issues, and representing parties in commercial and residential foreclosure actions.

In addition to his litigation practice, Jonathan provides end-to-end support on transactional matters—structuring and negotiating deals, conducting due diligence for mortgage portfolio acquisitions, drafting commercial agreements, guiding business formation, and helping clients navigate loan workouts and real estate transactions.

Jonathan combines deep legal knowledge with a practical understanding of clients' business goals. He is a trusted advisor for those facing legal and financial complexities requiring strategic foresight and efficient resolution.

Jonathan Walton is Of Counsel, practicing in Butzel's Detroit office. He is a member of the State Bar of Michigan, Real Property Law, Business Law, and Litigation Sections. He maintains an AV® Preeminent™ peer review rating from Martindale-Hubbell.
