Kimberly A. Zortman is Butzel’s Audit Manager. With over 30 years of experience in the legal and accounting sectors—including nearly two decades in her current role—Kimberly brings a valuable skill set and a hands-on approach to financial operations.

Kimberly leads all internal and external audits, from general accounting to workers’ compensation, property tax, and use tax. Day to day, she manages payroll oversight, general ledger activity, bank reconciliations, and audit preparation. Kimberly also handles expense and travel reporting through the firm’s expense management, travel, and invoice software and oversees all state and federal Political Action Committee (PAC) filings.

Known for her reliability, collaboration, and eye for detail, she plays a key role in special projects and keeps operations running smoothly behind the scenes, working closely with cross-functional teams to ensure financial accuracy and integrity.

Kimberly works from Butzel’s Troy office. She received a Bachelor of Arts in Economics from the State University of New York at Fredonia.
