Clients across the globe have sought the counsel of Nicholas J. Stasevich for the deep experience he has developed during his substantial legal career spanning more than three decades. His clients include publicly traded and closely held companies in automotive, technology, and numerous other industries. He counsels and represents clients regarding legal and business issues that are top of mind in the operation of entities of all sizes on a national and international scale.

The primary focus of Mr. Stasevich's practice is concentrated on International, Corporate, Mergers and Acquisitions, and Venture Capital transactions. He represents a broad range of companies—with domestic and multinational operations—in antitrust and trade regulation, joint ventures, employment matters, sales and distribution contracts, global corporate compliance, and other matters. His experience also includes advising US and foreign-based companies in the establishment of operations throughout the US, Canada, Mexico, Europe, South America, Asia, Africa, and Australia.

Mr. Stasevich is a member of numerous associations of national and international significance including Lex Mundi, the world's leading network of independent law firms with in-depth experience in more than 125 countries worldwide. Butzel is a founding member and the exclusive member firm for Michigan. He has served as Chair of the International Law Section of the State Bar of Michigan and is also a member of the International Bar Association and the American Bar Association (International Law and Business Law Sections). In 2002, Mr. Stasevich was appointed H.M. Consul-Honorary of the United Kingdom to the State of Michigan. He currently serves as the President of the Consular Corps of Michigan and Chair of the Board of Directors
