Autonomous Vehicles – Legal and Regulatory Hurdles to Deployment

Ann Arbor, MI
4.15.2016

Friday, April 15, 2016

Hosted by the University of Michigan Law School

Join industry, government, and academic experts to take a closer look at the legal and regulatory hurdles along the path toward deployment of autonomous vehicles. This conference will examine the high-priority issues from a variety of perspectives, including original equipment manufacturers, technology suppliers, insurance providers, federal, state, and local governments, ride-sharing providers, and emerging entrepreneurial ventures.

Registration is $149 per person.
