Best Practices and the Representation of Individuals in White Collar Criminal Investigations

Date & Time: Thursday, September 17, 2015 from 12:00 pm to 1:30 pm

CLE Credit: No

Event Description

A panel of experienced practitioners will discuss best practices and recent case developments affecting the representation of individuals in white collar investigations. This program promises to be insightful for both newcomers and experienced members of the white collar bar and will be a great opportunity to interact with one another.

This brown bag program is sponsored by the D.C. Bar Criminal Law and Individual Rights Section, in cosponsorship with the following additional D.C. Bar Sections: Corporation, Finance and Securities Law Section, the Health Law Section and the Antitrust and Consumer Law Section. Doors open at 11:30 am.

*This program is available for both in-person attendance and live webinar/webcast participation. To access webinar/webcast registration, please copy and paste the following link in your web browser: <http://www.dcbbar.org/marketplace/event-details.cfm?productcd=051602CIRCW>

Please Note: Requests for changes to registration from in-person attendance to webinar/webcast must be made by 10:00 am the day of the event.
