GDPR: What It Means, What It Does, & What You Need to Know

4.24.2018

Please Join Us for a Complimentary Webinar

The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) goes into effect in the European Union next month. Is your company ready? Or are you still scratching your head about how to approach these changing data privacy laws?

In this webinar, Butzel Long attorneys Claudia Rast and Jennifer Dukarski will help you navigate all your lingering questions. They will discuss the many challenges that come with GDPR and various scenarios within the autonomous vehicle industry that may impact companies across the world.

Mighty AI founder and CEO Daryn Nakhuda will host the event.

Apr 24, 2018 12:00 PM in Eastern Time (US and Canada)
