

EVENTS

Tariffs Uncovered Part II: The Next Phase Managing the Impacts to Steel, Aluminum and Reciprocal Tariffs

Webinar

3.14.2025 | 12:00pm - 1:00pm EST

Butzel, THE Automotive Suppliers Law Firm, announces the next webinar provided in a series of updates about the changing course of international trade. Please join our attorneys for an informative update and perspectives on tariffs and trade. Our team will provide up-to-date information about developments concerning Mexico and Canada, steel and aluminum exports and, reciprocal tariffs.

Topics Covered

- Mexico, Canada and China Tariff Updates
- Steel and Aluminum, Section 232 Tariffs
- Tariff Management Techniques

Key Benefits of Attending

- USMCA: Receive up-to-date insights on USMCA and reciprocal tariffs and what the recent tariff changes with Mexico, Canada and China mean to your business.
- Section 232 Tariffs on Steel and Aluminum: Learn about the recent changes, and impact on all aluminum and steel which includes all mill products, and some derivative products.
- Mitigate Tariff Risks: Discover strategies for managing existing and new tariff risks through negotiation and risk management.

This webinar will be hosted by Butzel attorneys: Leslie (Les) Alan Glick, Catherine Karol, and Mitchell Zajac.

Click Here to Register

Related People

Catherine M. Karol
Of Counsel

Mitchell Zajac
Shareholder

Related Services

Automotive Industry Team

International Business

International Trade and
Customs Specialty Team

EVENTS

We look forward to your participation.