Tuesday, December 6

12:00 pm - 1:00 pm

Employers of all kinds (fortune 500 companies, franchisors, franchisees, and mom & pop shops) face an ever increasing challenge in trying to navigate and comply with federal wage & hour laws, including new requirements relative to dealing with the payment and calculation of overtime. For many companies, a small mistake and/or miscalculation regarding an employee's wages can often result in statutory penalties, as well as expensive and unnecessary litigation - the cost of which far exceeds the pennies they miscalculated and/or tried to save.
