

IN THE NEWS

Butzel Long and OESA team up to host Supplier Legal Academy Series beginning May 30 in Troy

5.15.2019

DETROIT, Mich. – The automotive industry continues to grow and innovate at a rapid pace which may present challenges when it comes to protecting the best interests of the business. New types of agreements, customers, buyers and negotiation strategies have become daily topics of conversation.

The Original Equipment Suppliers Association (OESA), in partnership with Butzel Long, will host a “Supplier Legal Academy Series” designed to provide a “back-to-basics” approach for supply chain management in the current landscape, while looking ahead toward uncharted territory.

The OESA 2019 Butzel Long Supplier Legal Academy Series will take place at the MSU Management Education Center, located at 811 W. Square Lake Road in Troy.

The dates and focus for the meetings are:

May 30, 2019: “Best Practices in Contract Formation and Buyer Vulnerabilities”

June 28, 2019: “Dealing with Bad Products, Supplier Threats and Unprofitable Programs”

July 26, 2019: “Protecting Trade Secrets, Who Owns Your Work, Rights to Information and Tooling Fundamentals”

The briefings are designed for supplier executives responsible for understanding, fulfilling and enforcing supply chain contracts.

Butzel Long presenters are attorneys from the firm’s Automotive Industry Team.

Some of the speakers include:

Related Services

Automotive Industry Team

IN THE NEWS

- Jennifer Dukarski
- Cynthia Haffey
- Sheldon Klein
- Donald Orlandoni
- Daniel Rustmann
- Mitchell Zajac

Registration is available in the events section of <http://www.oesa.org>. For registration and program information, contact OESA at 248.952.6401 or info@oesa.org.