1.6.2014

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BLOOMFIELD HILLS, Mich. – Butzel Long attorney and shareholder Angela Emmerling Boufford received the Volunteer of the Year Award from the Michigan Defense Trial Counsel (MDTC) recently during the Past President's Dinner in Novi. The MDTC is an association of the leading lawyers in the State of Michigan dedicated to representing individuals and corporations in civil litigation. Boufford serves on the MDTC Board of Directors and received the award in recognition of her contributions to the development of MDTC's online presence, including through the use of social media.

Boufford specializes in complex business and commercial litigation and also is a member of Butzel Long's Technology & eDiscovery practice. She was recognized by dBusiness magazine as a 2014 "Top Lawyer" in the area of information management and eDiscovery law. In addition to traditional litigation, Boufford has extensive arbitration experience and also served as an adjunct securities regulations professor at Ave Maria School of Law.

Boufford is a graduate of Michigan State University (1994) and the Michigan State University College of Law (J.D., magna cum laude, 1998). She is a member of the State Bar of Michigan, the American Bar Association, the Oakland County Bar Association, and the Federal Bar Association and is admitted to practice in Michigan and in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan, the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit, and the Supreme Court of the United States of America.
