FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DETROIT, Mich. – Butzel Long attorney and shareholder Gary W. Klotz has published a guest article in the January 2009 edition of everythingpeople™, an American Society of Employers magazine. The comprehensive article offers ten steps to compliance with the new Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) regulations.

Based in Butzel Long's Detroit office, Mr. Klotz has represented employers in labor and employment law matters for over 30 years. He has successfully defended employers in state and federal courts, as well as before state and federal administrative agencies. He also has extensive experience representing employers in labor arbitration cases, collective bargaining negotiations, and "preventive" employee relations counseling.

He is the author of numerous articles about labor and employment law, and he regularly speaks at management education programs about labor and employment issues. Mr. Klotz's professional memberships include the Labor and Employment Section of the American Bar Association and Employment Law Section of the State Bar of Michigan.

Mr. Klotz is a graduate of the University of Michigan Law School (J.D., cum laude, 1977) and Oakland University (B.A., summa cum laude, 1973).
