Butzel Long attorney Phillip C. Korovesis elected to Leadership Oakland Board of Directors

8.9.2016

DETROIT, Mich. – Butzel Long attorney and shareholder Phillip C. Korovesis has been elected Vice President of the Leadership Oakland Board of Directors. Leadership Oakland is focused on business and community leadership development.

“Leadership Oakland offers participants an opportunity to gain key insights, meet business and government leaders and to positively impact our region.” he said. “I look forward to serving Leadership Oakland in this important role during the 2016-2017 program year.”

Based in Butzel Long’s Detroit office, Korovesis is Chair of Butzel Long’s Trade Secret and Non-Compete Specialty Team, which focuses on trade secret, non-compete and business tort litigation.

Korovesis’ practice is focused on commercial disputes, with trial, litigation and consultation expertise in non-compete/trade secret disputes, product liability defense and business and financial services industry disputes.

He has successfully tried cases in state and federal courts in various parts of the country and has successfully represented clients in state and federal appellate courts. He has successfully arbitrated cases before the American Arbitration Association and the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority.

Korovesis is a regular presenter on trade secret and non-compete issues to lawyers and other professionals. He is a former President of the Michigan Defense Trial Counsel (MDTC).

He is an active member of the Defense Research Institute’s Commercial Litigation Committee. He is a member of the State Bar of Michigan and the Federal Bar Association.

Korovesis is a graduate of Wayne State University (B.S., with
