

IN THE NEWS

Butzel Long attorney Reggie Pacis quoted in Crain's Detroit Business on renegotiated NAFTA and its impact on immigration rules

Crain's Detroit Business
3.3.2019

When President Donald Trump signed the United States-Mexico-Canada Agreement Nov. 30, it raised concerns among company leaders and the foreign nationals they employ about who would have legal work status in this country.

But fears about the trade deal that Trump says is better for the United States than the North American Free Trade Agreement appear to have been overblown, since immigration rules would remain the same under the USMCA.

Click here to read the complete article in Crain's Detroit Business
(subscription may be required)

Related Services

- Citizenship
- Employer Compliance
- Green Cards
- Immigration
- Temporary Visas