Butzel Long attorney Robert P. Perry to discuss new tax law – TRA 2010 during February 17 program

2.16.2011

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BLOOMFIELD HILLS, Mich. – Butzel Long attorney and shareholder Robert P. Perry will be the featured speaker during a February 17 program highlighting the new tax law – TRA 2010, which has revolutionized estate planning. The program is presented by Visionary Marketing Group, a Sterling Heights-based brokerage agency.

Mr. Perry has extensive experience in many facets of estate and business succession planning. His experience includes: the preparation and implementation of buy-sell agreements, irrevocable life insurance trusts, charitable remainder and lead trusts, generation-skipping and "dynasty" trusts, personal residence trusts, grantor retained annuity trusts, split dollar insurance planning, family limited partnerships and limited liability companies and planning for distributions from qualified plans and individual retirement accounts. Mr. Perry also has substantial experience in miscellaneous probate and trust issuance, tax compliance and estate tax audit and internal revenue service litigation matters.

Mr. Perry is a frequent lecturer on various estate planning topics, including estate planning for qualified plan assets and individual retirement accounts and using charitable planning techniques for qualified plan assets. In addition, Mr. Perry has published numerous articles on estate planning and tax topics.
