Commission still hasn't drafted formal reprimand for civil rights director

Beth LeBlanc, The Detroit News Published 8:45 a.m. ET Aug. 27, 2019

Nearly a month has passed since the Michigan Civil Rights Commission voted to reprimand Department of Civil Rights Director Agustin Arbulu for comments he made objectifying women, but documentation of the action has yet to be placed in Arbulu's personnel file.

The commission still has to draft the reprimand and vote on it, said spokeswoman Vicki Levengood, replying to inquiries from The Detroit News about the document's absence from Arbulu's file.
