

IN THE NEWS

---

Butzel Long attorney Sheldon Klein quoted in the Automotive News on auto suppliers aiding medical push

Automotive News
3.28.2020

Suppliers are scrambling to evaluate what tooling, worker retraining and quality control assurance they need to start producing medical items quickly.

Parts suppliers are scrambling to play a role in the industry's new effort to convert automotive factory capacity to the production of ventilators, respirators, masks, hospital gowns and other key medical supplies to help combat the COVID-19 pandemic.

Click here to read the complete article in Automotive News \(subscription required\).

Related Services

Automotive Industry Team

Supply Chain Management