Former Michigan Supreme Court Justice Kurtis Wilder Talks Life After the Bench

By Steve Thorpe

Former Michigan Supreme Court Justice Kurtis T. Wilder has rejoined Butzel Long, where he practiced earlier in his career, as Of Counsel. He served on the Michigan Supreme Court following his appointment by Governor Rick Snyder on May 9, 2017. Wilder also served as a judge on the Michigan Court of Appeals from 1998 to 2017 and a judge of the Washtenaw County Trial Court from 1992 to 1998. He is a Past President of the Michigan Judges Association, and Past Chairman of the State Bar Judicial Conference. Wilder graduated from the University of Michigan with an A.B. degree in Political Science in 1981, and from the University of Michigan Law School with a Juris Doctor degree in 1984.
