

IN THE NEWS

Butzel Long hosts free webinar on March 26 focused on Executive Orders on COVID-19: What Health Care Providers Need to Know

3.25.2020

DETROIT, Mich. – Butzel Long is hosting a complimentary webinar from 9-10:30 a.m. on Thursday, March 26, 2020 on the Executive Orders on the COVID-19 pandemic and the potential effect on the business operations of health care providers. To register, visit www.butzel.com/events.

Attorneys from Butzel Long's health care, employment, business law, and employee benefits groups will present a summary of key issues, followed by an interactive question-and-answer session to raise specific concerns. Topics will include:

- Governor Whitmer's shelter-in-place executive order, and the executive order on non-emergency medical procedures;
- Responsibilities to maintain health insurance or any other benefits if operations are closed;
- Staff hours, reduced schedules, and filing for unemployment;
- Sick time policies, effect on PTO plans, FMLA;
- Tax credits to businesses;
- Small business loans and other funding supports;
- Coordination of state and federal orders and legislation;
- Donations/loans of disposable and capital equipment; and,
- Announcements of various regulatory relief.

Topics are likely to change based on the most recent developments, but webinar participants will have an up-to-date look at key issues affecting their businesses, employees, and patients.

Related People

John P. Hancock Jr.
Of Counsel

Related Services

Employee Benefits
Health Care
Health Care Industry Team
Labor and Employment