Butzel attorney Jennifer Dukarski interviewed by Autoline: EVs Unleash a Flood of Litigation

10.4.2021

The auto industry knows the future is with electric vehicles. But it's also facing a slew of new legal issues that EVs bring with them. Battery fires are pitting automakers against suppliers. Electric utilities face legal challenges from companies that operate charging stations. And consumers are demanding protection from any of these problems. Autoline This Week tackles the legal issues that have not got the attention they deserve.

PANEL: Jennifer Dukarski, Butzel; Sam Abuelsamid, Guidehouse Insights; John McElroy, Autoline.tv
