Butzel Long hosts 32nd Annual Labor, Employment, Benefits and Immigration Law Forum at MotorCity Casino Hotel in Detroit

DETROIT, Mich. – Human resources professionals, general counsel, business owners and all who deal with employees, must hit the ground running each day to keep up with a maze of labor, employment, employee benefits and immigration law issues.

Butzel Long's 32nd Annual Labor, Employment, Employee Benefits and Immigration Law Forum will focus on key legal matters on Thursday, November 14, 2019 at the MotorCity Casino Hotel, located at 2901 Grand River Avenue in Detroit.

The seminar begins with registration at 7:15 a.m. The conference takes place from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. The $190 registration fee includes a continental breakfast, lunch and seminar materials. The program is pending approval for both 4 (HR (General)) recertification credits by the HR Certification Institute as well as 4 PDCs for the SHRM-CPSM or SHRM-SCPSM.

"Labor, employment, benefits and immigration issues change constantly," said Daniel B. Tukel, Chair of Butzel Long's Labor, Employment and Employee Benefits Department. "We have developed 12 workshops to address some of the top workplace issues employers face today."

Workshop session topics include:

- Recent Changes in Immigration: Impact on Employers and their Foreign National Employees
- Workplace Violence and the Mentally Challenged Employee
- Employee Benefits Issues Worth Losing Sleep Over – A Roundtable Discussion
