

IN THE NEWS

Butzel Long attorney Mark Lezotte will moderate panel during Automation Alley's Integr8™ Conference on November 14 in Detroit

11.15.2018

DETROIT, Mich. – Mark Lezotte, a leading southeast Michigan health care attorney with Butzel Long, will moderate a panel program during Automation Alley's Integr8™: The Industry 4.0 Conference on Thursday, November 14, 2018 at the Renaissance Center in Detroit. The focus of the panel discussion is: "Big Data and Artificial Intelligence's Impact on Health Care."

Panelists for the session include: Kevin Lasser, CEO, JEMS Technology; Gloria Jen, Director of Clinical Operations, Clinical Development, SRI Biosciences; Brian Crutchfield, Vice President and General Manager of Materialise; and, Dr. Ryan J. Nelson, Michigan Institute of Urology. The panel will discuss technology and medical innovation, and the effect on improved health outcomes, quality, and cost containment.

Lezotte has substantial experience in corporate, health care, tax, and exempt organization matters, including healthcare ventures, business transactions, regulatory investigations, corporate and nonprofit governance, and tax-exempt issues. He also has served in leadership roles on many other civic and nonprofit boards.

He has been active in numerous bar and professional organizations. He has been recognized in "The Best Lawyers in America" (health care law), published by Woodward/White, Inc. since 2013; and has been selected to Michigan Super Lawyers, published by Thomson Reuters, since 2008.

Related Services

Health Care

Health Care Industry Team

Telemedicine & E-Health