Real estate attorney joins Butzel Long

9.7.2016

BLOOMFIELD HILLS, Mich. – David W. Hipp, a real estate attorney, has joined Butzel Long as Counsel in the firm's Bloomfield Hills office. His practice is focused on real estate and real estate finance, including loan originations for lenders, representation of borrowers, purchases and sales of real estate, leasing, construction, and development.

Throughout his legal career, Hipp has represented banks and other lenders in all aspects of commercial real estate finance, including complex loans, syndications, construction financing and workouts. He has worked with institutional clients to develop form documents and procedures.

At the same time, Hipp has represented buyers and sellers in real estate sale and purchase transactions ranging from single family homes to multi-million dollar commercial properties such as hotels, apartment projects, and shopping centers. He has extensive experience negotiating and drafting commercial leases for both lessors and lessees.

He is listed in The Best Lawyers in America 2016 (for 10 years) – Real Estate; Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyers for Business 2016 – Real Estate; and, Michigan Super Lawyers 2016 – Real Estate. Further, he is listed as a 2016 "Top Lawyer" by DBusiness magazine. He is AV® Peer Review Rated by Martindale-Hubbell. He is a member of the State Bar of Michigan, Real Property Law Section.

Hipp is a graduate of Wayne State University Law School (J.D., 1977) and the University of Michigan (B.A. 1972).
