BLOOMFIELD HILLS, Mich. – Butzel Long attorney and shareholder Robert H. Schwartz has been elected to the Executive Committee for Crime Stoppers of Southeastern Michigan. He also will serve as secretary for the organization.

The Alliance for a Safer Greater Detroit is the parent organization for Crime Stoppers of Southeastern Michigan. The Alliance is a non-profit organization and was founded in 1993 based on an identified need for the community, business, and law enforcement to come together to fight crime and the perception of crime in the Detroit region.

"Crime Stoppers provides an avenue for people to turn in anonymous tips on crimes that they may have knowledge of," said Mr. Schwartz. "If the tip leads to an arrest, the individual receives a financial award. Crime Stoppers is a positive program in our community."

Mr. Schwartz is based in Butzel Long's Bloomfield Hills office. His practice includes corporate and health care cases. He has extensive experience in business planning, mergers and acquisitions and in assisting health care and hospital clients in health care regulatory areas including reimbursement, fraud and abuse, and hospital physician relations, among others. He also works on various international matters with a particular emphasis on Mexico, Latin America and Canada. Mr. Schwartz is a resident of West Bloomfield.

Butzel Long was established in 1854 and is headquartered in Detroit. Butzel Long is one of Michigan's oldest and largest law firms, with 215 attorneys and offices in Detroit, Bloomfield Hills, Lansing, Ann Arbor, and Holland, Mich., Washington, D.C. and Boca Raton, Fla., as well as Alliance offices in Beijing and Shanghai, China.
