

IN THE NEWS

Webinar to offer HIPAA Update

2.19.2016

Butzel Long conducts free webinar February 25

DETROIT, Mich. – Employers and healthcare practitioners can gain key insight on various regulations under the HIPPA Omnibus Rule, related laws and the Affordable Care Act during a free webinar hosted by Butzel Long from Noon to 1 p.m. on Thursday, February 25, 2016. Attorneys Deb Geroux, Lynne McGuire and Mark Jane, will discuss the following:

- HIPAA assessments, training and updates for annual compliance mandates;
- General HIPAA compliance programs and the annual assessments and training attendant to an “effective” program;
- Risk of not complying with the HIPAA Compliance Program mandates;
- Discussion of recent cases involving HIPAA non-compliance;
- HIPAA requirements that you might not expect;
- Changes employers may want to make to their Business Associate Agreements regarding risk assessments; and,
- Discussion of recent IRS guidance on PPACA impacting health reimbursement arrangements, flexible credit plans, and opt-out cash programs

To register for the free webinar, visit www.butzel.com/events/. For more information or questions, contact Jonathan Spencer at (313) 983-6995 or spencer@butzel.com.

Related Services

Employee Benefits

Health Care