Butzel Long hosts 30th Annual Labor, Employment, Benefits and Immigration Law Forum at MotorCity Casino Hotel in Detroit

DETROIT, Mich. – Human resources professionals, general counsel, business owners and all who deal with employees need a playbook to keep up with changing laws, regulations and other issues impacting today's workplace. Butzel Long's 30th Annual Labor, Employment, Benefits and Immigration Law Forum will focus on a variety of these legal matters on Thursday, November 16, 2017 at the MotorCity Casino Hotel, located at 2901 Grand River Avenue in Detroit.

The seminar begins with registration at 7:15 a.m. The conference takes place from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. The $190 registration fee includes a continental breakfast, lunch and seminar materials.

"The attraction and retention of talent, particularly skilled and technical talent, is a significant challenge for many employers today," said Daniel B. Tukel, Chair of Butzel Long's Labor, Employment and Employee Benefits Department. "In addition to a broad variety of labor, employment, employee benefits and immigration workshops, this year, we have a talent attraction and retention track, with three different workshops devoted to that issue from a variety of different perspectives."

Workshop session topics include:

- It's a Brave New World in Immigration
- Workplace Investigations
- The NLRB Doesn't Bother Me!
- Incentives that Attract and Retain Talent
- U.S. Entry issues: Strategies for Successful Visa Applications
