Derek Mullins joins firm as a shareholder

DETROIT, Mich. – Butzel has added attorney and shareholder Derek Mullins to one of the firm's largest practice areas -- Litigation and Dispute Resolution. He focuses on federal procurement law and litigating complex commercial, real estate, class action, antitrust, and administrative law matters in state and federal courts.

Mullins, based in the firm's Detroit office, advises government contractors on a wide range of federal procurement matters, including bid protests and post-contract claims, prime-sub disputes, False Claims Act issues, SBA issues, data rights, compliance and ethics, and subcontracts and teaming agreements. Mullins also has experience assisting companies with internal investigations and in responding to civil and criminal inquiries by federal and state agencies.

He is a co-chair of the American Bar Association's Section of Public Contract Law: State and Local Procurement Division.

Mullins is admitted to practice in Michigan, the District of Columbia, Georgia, the United States Court of Federal Claims and the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan.

He is a graduate of Columbia Law School (J.D., 2010) and Brown University (B.A. Political Science, 2006).
