TROY, Mich. – Butzel continues to grow with the addition of attorney and shareholder Randi G. Hermiz. He focuses his practice on matters relating to strategic growth and protection of personal and business finances. From guiding emerging companies to facilitating complex commercial transactions, Hermiz represents individuals and small and medium-sized businesses in a variety of sectors, with dealings in Michigan, the U.S., and on a multinational scale.

Prior to practicing law, Hermiz established and operated successful businesses in the hospitality, import/export, and wholesale distribution industries. His comprehensive understanding of business operations complements his legal expertise, allowing him to effectively guide clients through intricate legal landscapes and towards sustained success.

Before joining Butzel, Hermiz founded and managed a boutique law firm that specialized in commercial transactions, estate planning, commercial litigation, and Intellectual Property Law. Clients included high net worth individuals and business entities, primarily consisting of physicians and health care ventures. He also has served as general counsel to a national company in the restaurant industry and as in-house counsel to a multinational company in the tobacco industry.

He is a member of the State Bar of Michigan, Oakland County Bar Association, Chaldean American Bar Association, and the Chaldean American Chamber of Commerce.

Hermiz earned a J.D. from the University of Detroit Mercy School of Law and a B.A., cum laude, from Wayne State University.
