

IN THE NEWS

Butzel Attorney Invited to Give Lecture During Speaker Series Presented by Cornell Law School on October 18

Firm News

10.13.2022

Alumnus Les Glick will discuss, 'Trump and Biden: Is This the End of Free Trade As We Know It?'

WASHINGTON, D.C. – Butzel attorney and shareholder Leslie “Les” Glick, has been invited to give a lecture at his alma mater, Cornell Law School, from 12:15–1:15 p.m. (EST) on Tuesday, October 18, 2022. The event is presented as part of the law school’s prestigious Berger International Legal Studies Program.

Glick’s lecture is titled, “Trump and Biden: Is This the End of Free Trade As We Know it?” The program is open to all and will be livestreamed. To register, visit the following link: <https://community.lawschool.cornell.edu/calendar-of-events/#/?id=196432>

He is co-chair of Butzel’s International Trade and Customs Specialty Team. Glick has extensive experience in the areas of international trade and customs law. He has handled major international trade cases before the U.S. International Trade Commission, the U.S. Department of Commerce, the Office of the U.S. Trade Representative, and the Court of International Trade.

Moreover, he assists U.S. and foreign clients with compliance with laws and regulations of the Food and Drug Administration (FDA), and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) in relation to food products, meat and poultry, plants, medical devices and the importation of pharmaceutical and biological materials as well as consumer product safety and automotive product regulation and recalls (NHTSA and FMVSA).

Glick has been active in developing customs compliance programs for many U.S. corporations. He is the author of books on customs law and NAFTA and most recently on the U.S. Mexico Canada Agreement (USMCA) and has been widely consulted by

Related Services

International Trade and Customs Specialty Team

IN THE NEWS

companies and trade associations regarding U.S./Mexico legal questions involving imports, exports, investment, transportation, to name a few.

He was recently appointed co-chair of the International Trade Committee, American Bar Association (ABA), International Law Section, which is comprised of more than 450 members. It is one of the largest committees in the International Law Section. Previously, Glick served as vice-chair of programs for the International Trade Committee, where he organized numerous seminars and webinars.

Glick has been an adjunct professor of Law at the George Mason University Law School (University of Virginia) and the University of Baltimore (University of Maryland).