

IN THE NEWS

Butzel Attorney Will Discuss Estate Planning on June 18 and 25 at the Buchanan Area Senior Center

Firm News

6.12.2024

NILES, Mich. – Butzel attorney John R. Colip will discuss Estate Planning to members of the Buchanan Area Senior Center on June 18 and 25.

About John R. Colip

For more than four decades, John Colip has focused his practice on Corporate, Family, Probate and Real Estate Law, including business organization and estate planning. He has counseled and represented clients throughout Southwestern Michigan concerning a myriad of legal issues. He is a trained mediator and does facilitative as well as evaluative mediation. He also is a trained Collaborative Divorce lawyer.

Colip, based in Butzel's Niles office, assists clients with corporate and business planning matters including transfers of ownership, business sales, succession planning, and other issues inherent to family-owned and corporate enterprises. His experience includes financing, acquisition, and operation of real estate projects of all sizes, construction contracts, purchase agreements, documents pertinent to condominium sales and acquisitions, and more.

Clients look to Colip for his deep experience in protecting assets, probate and trust administration, tax matters, and general corporate matters. He has been recognized by a leading legal publication for his notable experience assisting clients in the areas of Business, Family, Real Estate, and Trust, Will and Estate Planning Law.

Related People

John R. Colip
Shareholder

Related Services

Business

Estate & Succession Planning

Family Law and Personal
Services