

IN THE NEWS

Butzel hosts March 14 webinar – Tariffs Uncovered: The Next Phase Managing the Impacts to Steel, Aluminum and Reciprocal Tariffs

Firm News

3.11.2025

DETROIT, Mich. – Butzel, THE Automotive Suppliers Law Firm, is hosting the next webinar provided in a series of updates about the changing course of international trade. Butzel attorneys from the International Trade and Specialty Team, and the Automotive Practice, will provide up-to-date information about developments, concerning Mexico and Canada, steel and aluminum exports and reciprocal tariffs. The free Butzel webinar will take place from 12–1 p.m., on Friday, March 14, 2025. To register online, click here.

Key topics covered:

- Mexico, Canada and China Tariffs Updates
- Steel and Aluminum, Section 232 Tariffs
- Tariff Management Techniques

About the presenters:

Catherine M. Karol focuses her practice on commercial transactions and regulatory compliance with numerous automotive and advertising clients. She is active in addressing emerging legal issues. Karol coordinated a multidisciplinary team within Butzel to counsel clients on the Sections 301 and 232 tariffs. She advises new manufacturers of Electric Vehicles on U.S. dealer distribution issues and participated in the Butzel team that is involved in the ongoing development of autonomous vehicle regulation.

Leslie ("Les") Alan Glick is Chair of Butzel's International Trade and Customs Specialty Team. He has extensive experience in the areas of international trade and customs law. Glick has handled major international trade cases before the U.S. International Trade Commission, the U.S. Department of

Related People

Catherine M. Karol
Of Counsel

Mitchell Zajac
Shareholder

Related Services

Automotive Industry Team

International Business

International Trade and
Customs Specialty Team

IN THE NEWS

Commerce, the Office of the U.S. Trade Representative, and the Court of International Trade. Glick has been active in developing customs compliance programs for many U.S. corporations.

Mitchell ("Mitch") Zajac is a member of Butzel's Litigation and Dispute Resolution Practice Group. His practice includes a focus on automotive, intellectual property, regulatory and emissions compliance.