DETROIT, Mich. – Butzel immigration law attorney Reginald A. Pacis, will be a featured panelist during an American Immigration Lawyers Association (AILA) webinar on Thursday, March 31, 2022. The program is titled, “Treaty-Based Visa Processing: TN, E-3, and H-1B Processing Challenges with USCIS and CBP.”

Notably, Australia, Canada, Chile, Mexico, and Singapore nationals are increasingly turning to U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) and U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) processing given the backlogs at U.S. consulates. Applicants may find different adjudication standards being applied by USCIS and CBP.

Panelists will discuss strategies for seeking alternatives to consular adjudication for applicants to avoid the risk of overseas travel and disruption in work authorization.

Pacis focuses his practice in immigration law and has handled a variety of immigration matters including H-1B specialty occupation cases, L-1 Intracompany transfers, Labor Certification matters, Immigrant Visa Petitions/Adjustment of Status applications and interviews, TN Free trade cases, H-1B Department of Labor Investigations, I-9 employer verification compliance, and U.S. Port of Entry airport and land port interviews.

In 2021, Pacis was appointed a trustee to the Michigan Asian Pacific American Affairs Commission (MAPAAC), which helps address the needs and concerns of the Asian Pacific American (APA) communities in Michigan. Previously, he was a commissioner to the MAPAAC.
