

IN THE NEWS

Butzel Law Firm Presents Seminar Addressing Campus Protests, Board/ Administration Relations and More on October 3 in Troy

Firm News

9.17.2024

TROY, Mich. – Higher education institutions often need a playbook to keep up with a wide range of issues including campus protests and Board/ Administration Relations.

In response, the Butzel Education Team will host half-day seminar featuring education industry practitioners and leaders who will share best practices and more.

Butzel invites higher education professionals to a discussion of complex issues from 1:30–5 p.m. on Thursday, October 3, 2024, at the firm's office located in the Columbia Center, 201 W. Big Beaver Rd. in Troy. The firm's Education Industry co-chairs, Carey DeWitt and Lynn McGuire are hosting the program.

The first panel presentation will feature special guests (and their areas of focus) including:

- Campus Protests – Brian Quinn: Vice President for Legal Affairs and General Counsel, Michigan State University
- Title IX Investigations – Brett Meyer: General Counsel, Grand Rapids Community College
- Hiring the President – Keith James: Attorney, Keith James, PLLC and Board of Trustees, Member, Albion College

The second panel presentation will feature special guests (and their areas of focus) including:

- Board/ Administration Relations – Eunice Jeffries: Executive Director, Government and Community Relations and Continuing Education at Oakland Community College and Regent, Board of Regents at Eastern Michigan University

Related People

Carey A. DeWitt
Shareholder

Lynn McGuire
Shareholder

Related Services

Education Industry Team

IN THE NEWS

- Faculty Issues and Relations – Pamela Zarkowski, JD, MPH, Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs: University of Detroit Mercy
- Student Discipline – Jeffrey Steele, General Counsel, Macomb Community College

Networking will immediately follow the program (including beverages and small bites).

While there isn't a fee to attend the program, seating is limited, and registration is required. To register, click here.