

IN THE NEWS

Butzel Long attorney Nicholas Stasevich featured in Legal News article

12.12.2014

Of the 160 years that Butzel Long has been serving clients, 27 of those years have included the important work of attorney Nicholas Stasevich. A shareholder based in the Detroit office, Stasevich serves as chair of the firm's international practice that includes corporate, antitrust, mergers and acquisitions, and labor and employment law.

"I chose international law as my area of practice because of my study of foreign languages and my interest in history, other cultures, foreign policy, and people in general," says Stasevich.

Click here to read the complete article.

Related Services

Antitrust & Trade Regulation

International Business

Mergers & Acquisitions