Stark Regulations – Phase III

New regulations go into effect December 4, 2007

On September 5, 2007, the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) published Phase III of the Stark regulations. These regulations went into effect on December 4, 2007. Phase III responds to many of the criticisms of Phase II. There are several clarifications, amendments, and additions of which you should be aware. This primer provides an overview of the most significant changes that may impact your medical practice or hospital.
