Privacy Shield Said Unlikely To Withstand Scrutiny From European Union High Court

3.15.2016

"Privacy Shield probably won't withstand scrutiny by Europe's highest court if and when the draft trans-Atlantic data protection agreement is challenged after the European Commission adopts it, said two legal experts during an FCBA panel Monday. A third panelist, Andrea Glorioso, counselor for the digital economy with the EU delegation to the U.S., spoke off the record during the discussion, he told us after the event."

Ira Hoffman of Butzel Long is quoted in Communications Daily regarding the Privacy Shield Law. Click here to read the complete article (subscription required).
