

HEALTH CARE REFORM – Are You Ready?

While the enactment of health care reform legislation by Congress has been much debated, there is one certainty: Health Insurance Will Change Dramatically On January 1, 2014.

Here are some important changes:

Effective Date
January 1, 2014	“Pay or Play” Employer Shared Responsibility	Employers with 50 + full-time employees must offer a minimum level of affordable health care coverage to full-time employees or pay tax penalties.
January 1, 2014	Wellness Incentives	Employer plans may increase allowed wellness incentives from 20% of average costs to 30%.
January 1, 2014 (or later)	Automatic Enrollment	Large employers (200+ full-time employees) are required to automatically enroll new employees in employer’s group health plan. Compliance is delayed until regulations are issued.
January 1, 2014 (or later)	Nondiscrimination Rule	Insured employer group health plans may not discriminate in favor of highly compensated employees. Compliance is delayed until regulations are issued.
January 1, 2014	Annual Dollar Limits	Employer group health plans cannot impose annual dollar limits on essential health benefits.
January 1, 2014	Waiting Periods	Employer group health plans cannot impose waiting periods longer than 90 days.
January 1, 2014	Preexisting Condition Exclusions	Employer group health plans cannot impose exclusions on any preexisting condition.
January 1, 2018	“Cadillac Tax”	Employers will be required to pay an excise tax if coverage under their group health plan exceeds annual cost of $10,200 (single coverage) or $27,500 (family coverage). Costs to be adjusted for inflation.
Not Specified	Quality of Care Reporting	Employer group health plans must prepare an annual report disclosing information about plan benefits and reimbursement structures that improve health outcomes. Though the deadline for issuing regulations was March 23, 2012, Compliance is delayed until regulations are issued.
