Brian Paino has a proven record of obtaining successful results in state, federal, bankruptcy, appellate, and arbitration forums for clients in various industries, including energy, financial services, equipment, insurance, and real estate. Brian has nearly 20 years of experience helping financial services clients navigate federal and state consumer protection laws, including the FCRA, FDCPA, TCPA, SCRA, RESPA, TILA, California Military & Veterans Code, California Consumer Credit Reporting Agencies Act, California Rosenthal Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, and California Homeowner Bill of Rights.

Brian also handles a wide range of business disputes, including suits involving claims for breach of contract, trademark infringement, tortious conduct, unfair competition, and violations of federal and state laws.

He is regularly consulted for his creative solutions to complex matters, including class and mass tort actions.

When it comes to solving his clients' difficult problems, Brian takes a strategic, detail-oriented, and collaborative approach with the goal of achieving expedient and cost-effective results.
