Ian Fuqua has extensive experience advising financial institutions on compliance, litigation, and risk management matters. He focuses his practice on federal and state consumer protection laws, including the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act (FDCPA), Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA), Truth in Lending Act (TILA), and Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (RESPA).

Ian's case work includes defending financial institutions against claims involving violations of consumer protection statutes, allegations of predatory lending, mortgage and servicing fraud, wrongful foreclosure and eviction, commercial contract disputes, tax sale challenges, and property-related code enforcement. He assists clients by evaluating risks and creating defense strategies that align with their business objectives while minimizing operational disruption.
