

Ian A. King II

Associate

50 California Street
Suite 2900
San Francisco, CA 94111
415-743-3706
iking@hinshawlaw.com

Ian King II provides professional liability, malpractice, and risk management counsel to lawyers, medical professionals, directors, and officers. With his previous experience representing plaintiffs in New York, Ian brings valuable insights to his clients' cases, taking pre-suit evaluations to settlement or bringing a case to trial.

Prior to joining Hinshaw, Ian practiced law at a maritime and admiralty defense litigation firm.

Professional Affiliations

- Alameda County Bar Association
- California State Bar
- Charles Houston Bar Association
- New York State Bar

Honors & Awards

- St. John's University School of Law
 - New York Real Property Law Journal, Associate Managing Editor, 2017
 - Alternative Dispute Resolutions Competition, Finalist, 2016

Publications

- Co-Author, "Zombies No More: New York Abandoned Properties Find a Home with New Legislation," New York State Bar Association, N.Y. Real Property Law Journal, Winter 2017, Vol. 45, No. 1

Personal

Ian has worked in the maritime industry as a First Mate and PADI-certified rescue diver aboard several yachts throughout the Caribbean and the Northern East Coast of the United States, sailing from Anguilla to St. Lucia.

He has also competed in the 2023 USRowing Southwest Masters Regional Championships, winning a gold medal and two silver medals.

Practices

Commercial Litigation
Professional Liability

Education

J.D., St. John's University
School of Law, 2017

B.S., Psychology, Pennsylvania
State University, 2007

Admissions

California
New York