Jason Greenfield handles all phases of litigation. He represents his clients in employment law matters involving discrimination and harassment, as well as wage and hour claims. To limit liability and exposure, Jason ensures his clients are informed throughout the process.

Prior to joining Hinshaw, Jason was an associate at a boutique defense litigation law firm where he litigated matters involving general, construction, premises, and product liability.

During law school, Jason interned with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and Georgia Court of Appeals.
